

Game of Questions and Answers

Part 1) Questions about your Scandinavian heritage:

Q: Who can name One out of Five Scandinavian countries?

A: Norway, Sweden, Finland, Iceland, Denmark.

Q: Who in the group/class has a Scandinavian heritage?

Q: Who in your family speaks Swedish, Norwegian, Danish, etc...?

Q: Who can speak one word/ phrase in his Scandinavian language of origin?

Q: Who can tell the name of the Danish author who wrote the story "The Little Mermaid" ?

A: Hans Christian Andersen.

Q: Who can name one or more fairy tales or stories written by Hans Christian Andersen?

A: -The Snow Queen/ - The Emperor's New Clothes/ -The Little Match Girl/-The Ugly Duckling/ -Thumbelina/-The Red Shoes/- The Tinderbox/-The Fir Tree/- The Princess and the Pea, etc...(more than 150 tales and stories).

Part 2) Questions about Trolls:

Q: Who can tell what the word "Trolleri" means in Swedish?

A: "Magic"

Q: Who can tell what other word you recognize in the word "Trolleri"?

A: "Troll"

Q: Who can tell which type of Troll Anna and her sisters were facing in the Story?

A: "A mountain Troll " as big as mountain boulders.

Q: Who can tell what our mountain Troll feared the most ?

A: The sunlight / Mountain Trolls live in dark caves and only go out at sundown.

Q: Who can tell what Anna discovered on the ground of the Troll's cave?

A: All kinds of gold and silver coins. Trolls are known to collect all kinds of shiny treasures.

Q: Who can tell what Anna discovered inside the black heart of the Troll?

A: A precious gem.

Q: Who can name one of the three contests Anna used to challenge the Troll ?

A: 1) Who can Squeeze water out of a rock ?

- 2) Who can cut the most wood?
- 3) Who can eat the most porridge?

Q: Who can tell at least one of the clever tricks Anna came up with to defeat the Troll?

- 1) She was curious to ask her papa detailed information about Trolls.
- 2) Instead of running away in fear like her sisters, she was prepared to welcome the signs and challenges of the Troll! (Breath, Drool, Intimidations: "I'll eat you up")
- 3) She called him "Puny" to coax him into wanting to prove himself strong, then challenged him for an impossible strength contest, and she cleverly squeezed a white cheese that looked just like a rock.
- 4) She hid her backpack under her shirt to fill it up with food.
- 5) She used a knife to cut the bottom of the back pack and kept eating to win the contest.
- 6) She pretended the knife was magical, and lured the Troll out of his cave at the edge of a cliff, knowing the sun was about to rise, and would turn him into stone.

Q: Name at least One other Type of Trolls:

A: Forest Trolls(tall as trees),
Swamp Trolls(with big heads and hair like algae),
Trolls under Bridges,
Waterfall Trolls...

Q: Who can tell where the Troll called the "Fossegrim" can be found?

A: Under a Waterfalls

Q: Who can tell how the Fossegrim enchanted people?

A: By playing a magical violin.

Q: What did the music of the violin do to those who heard it?

A: They had to dance until they dropped.

Q: Who can tell the name of the story of the Troll under the Bridge?

A: "The three Billy Goats Gruff", a popular folk tale (author unknown).

Q: Who can tell which popular books/movies that involve a Troll, that the heroes have to fight in a bathroom?

A: "Harry Potter and the "Philosopher's Stone"

Q:Who can tell which type of Troll it was?

A: A "Mountain Troll", enormous, strong, and fierce yet very stupid.

Q: Who can tell which of Anna's sisters is the "Strong One"?

A: "Greta"

Q: Who can tell the name of Anna's oldest sister?

A: "Elsa"

Q: Who can tell what Elsa's main character trait was?

A: Elsa was the "practical" one.

Q: Who was more clever than the Troll?

A: "Anna".